World	Expectations are an incredibly powerful force. Expectations color our reality and often determine how we interact with the world, where our hopes rest, and how we relate with other people. All is (usually) well and good until the moment our expectations are not met. Often, we react with deep emotions. When have your expectations not been met? How did it feel? What did you do? Could you have done anything differently?
Pray	Loving God, might the expectations we keep always be marked with hope. Amen.
